Belmont House

Enjoy a fascinating morning at Belmont House. The beautiful 18th century house with commanding views of the surrounding estate and Kent North Downs is a sight to see. Six generations of the Harris family have each left their mark on the neo-classical country house, with plenty to discover on your visit. Belmont House is home to one of the largest personal collections of clocks in the country, collected by the 5th Lord Harris. The beautiful gardens originally designed by Lady Arabella Lennox-Boyd are full of interest and delights throughout every season.

Brogdale Collections

Discover the Home of The National Fruit Collection at Brogdale. Set in over 150 acres of orchards Brogdale Collections is home to the National Fruit Collections, packed full of history, rare heritage fruit and more. With over 4,000 different fruit tree varieties including cherries, apples, quince, pears, plums & medlars there is plenty to discover. From stunning blossom to fruit filled harvest you will never be short of something to see and taste.

Macknade Fine Foods

No visit to Faversham would be complete without a trip to Macknade Fine Foods – the South East’s leading food hall, delicatessen, butchery & café in Faversham. Experience 10,000sqft of foodie heaven, from craft beers to exotic fruit, fresh bread to local wine and over 150 different cheeses!
